

Vector Wins Top Honors for Video

Vector Communications Corporation has won top honors from The Communicator Awards for the video it produced for St. Louis Development Corporation (SLDC) on economic development in downtown St. Louis. The "Crystal Award of Excellence" is given to entries whose ability to communicate puts them among the best in the field and whose work serves as a benchmark for the industry. There were 3,242 entries from 48 states, the District of Columbia and nine other countries.

Last fall, Vector produced the video for SLDC to show at St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay's first annual business luncheon. The video highlights successful businesses located in the City of St. Louis and outlines the opportunities available to companies that move into the city. Vector won the award of excellence in the category of external communications/economic development.

Vector Communications is a public engagement and communications consulting firm specializing in video production, media relations, strategic planning and community involvement. PW
